

TTRW - Waiver & Assumption of Risk BIB# _____

I, the undersigned, do understand and acknowledge that participation in the TTRW involves risk and danger which include, but are not limited to, factors related to terrain, water and weather conditions. I understand that the event is physically and mentally demanding and I understand that my participation in the event involves an absence of usual levels of rest, food and water and I accept the inherent risk and dangers of participation in this event. Event facilitators and volunteers do their best to create a safe environment for participants however all risk cannot be totally eliminated. The following is a representative listing of the potential hazards inherent in the event. This is not intended to be a complete listing as other injuries are certainly a possibility:

- The TTRW requires participants to be outdoors and engaged in various physical activities, including but not limited to trekking and trail running. Consequently, participants will be exposed to certain objective risks due to unpredictable weather conditions and natural or human hazards.
- Permanent physical limitation due to environmental hazards that can cause hypothermia, hyperthermia, frostbite, and severe sunburn.
- Serious head, neck and spinal injuries, which may result in complete or partial paralysis and/or brain, damage due to fall from a height, moving water, or other forces.
- Serious injury caused by falls or encounters with trauma producing objects found in nature, in and around vehicles, on the course tracks or elsewhere.
- Permanent brain injury/disability due to drowning.
- Serious injury or physical impairment to general health and well-being caused by an accident while being transported by your personal or a sponsor vehicle.
- Severe illness due to injection of venom, rabies virus, lyme disease or other diseases that can cause life threatening illness and/or anaphylactic or other allergic reactions by virtue of being bitten by insects or animals.
- Illness due to systemic infection caused by cuts, lacerations, punctures, avulsion, amputation, fractures, internal bleeding, and other soft tissue or related musculoskeletal injuries.
- Severe illness due to unanticipated exacerbation of underlying medical conditions such as but not limited to diabetes or epilepsy.
- Serious injury to any bones, joints, ligaments, muscles, tendons, and other components of the musculoskeletal system due to overuse injuries or traumatic accidents.
- Injury or infection of eyes, ears, and other vulnerable tissues.
- Illness or serious injury resulting from being lost.
- Serious/permanent injuries may also result from conditions and situations that cannot reasonably be anticipated, planned for, or prevented.

The participant must understand that any of the hazards mentioned above can ultimately lead to death. To minimize this potential risk, you must be honest with yourself regarding personal abilities and limitations and be responsible for such limitations in your decision to participate in the event. Participants must also understand that health or other types of insurance are not being provided. By signing this form, you are stating that you are aware of and understand the potential hazards inherent to this activity and choose to participate voluntarily in full consent and awareness. I AM AWARE OF THE RISKS, DANGERS AND HAZARDS ASSOCIATED WITH PARTICIPATING AND I FREELY ACCEPT AND FULLY ASSUME ALL SUCH RISKS, DANGERS AND HAZARDS AND THE POSSIBILITY OF PERSONAL INJURY, DEATH, PROPERTY DAMAGE OR LOSS RESULTING THEREFROM.
